

2018 Staff Appreciation Event & Membership Meeting

When: Tuesday, April 17, 2018

Topic: Leading Through Rapport: The Fundamental People Skills that Create Trust and Foster Collaboration

Speaker: Cort Worthington
Faculty, UC Berkeley Haas School of Business and Leadership Consultant

Cort Worthington teaches leadership courses in Haas School of Business graduate and undergraduate programs and delivers the core Leadership Community class for all full-time MBA students. His areas of focus include leadership skill development, organizational and team dynamics, executive coaching, and negotiation. He has worked with management teams at Pixar, Oracle, NetApp, the US Army, Kaiser Permanente, the US Olympic Team, California Dental Association, and the government of Saudi Arabia.

For 14 seasons Cort led elite teams as a forest firefighter and parachuting US Forest Smokejumper, which piqued his interest in improvisational principles as applied to leading high-risk, dynamic situations. He holds an MA in Communication from Stanford University and MBA degrees from UC Berkeley Haas School of Business and Columbia University Business School.

Cost: Member/Member Staff - $60
Nonmember/Nonmember Staff - $120

Where: PEACOCK GAP CLUBHOUSE
333 Biscayne Drive
